NOTE: All signatures must be notarized. All signatures are subject to verification. Claims are evaluated on a case by case basis considering the documentation presented and all other information that is available to the Tax Commissioner, his/her attorneys, employees and contractors. Because of the inherent varied circumstances involved in evaluating claims, we do not make estimates of time to pay claims. Once a determination of entitlement is made the claims are paid immediately within the bounds of the doctrine of reasonableness. All claims must be made by party entitled to receive the funds or their bona fide Attorney, licensed to practice in the State of Georgia. Powers of Attorney are not acceptable. The Tax Commissioner has the option of filing an interpleader with the Superior Court for determination of entitlement to the funds.
